Mike

Thank you for this update and for the great work by you and your team!

I am looping in the rest of the command team.

Keep it going! Let me know how I can support your efforts to end this unlawful demonstration and take our streets back!

Be safe and be well.

ps

Good evening,

Here are the stats for February 11th, 2022 relating to the on-going traffic initiatives in the identified community zones.

- 1 Improper turn
- 4 Document offences
- 1 Disobey sign
- 1 Wrong way driver
- 2 Cell phone

Members from Traffic Services were teamed up with inspectors from Transport Canada in an effort to interdict unsafe transportation of fuel to Convoy participants. 4 inspections of vehicles suspected of transporting dangerous goods (fuels) were conducted resulting in the following actions:

- 1 Insecure load
- 1 Insecure load – dangerous goods
- 3 document offences

Officers located the primary source where fuel is being purchased. It is suspected that fuel is being loaded and transported either directly to the Core or to their designated ad-hoc fueling station on Coventry Rd. Ref: 22-36078. Project continuing throughout weekend and will be joined by Ministry of Transportation.

Officer intercepted and recovered a re-VIN'd stolen vehicle which was being driven by a participant and destined to join the convoy demonstration. This is the second stolen vehicle recovered being operated by a convoy demonstrator. Ref: 22-35952

Respectfully,
TROY
